

Testimony of a Young Man Touched by God

Hi, my name is Bryce. I'm just a kid like God was one time. I'm just a normal person that has been lost, but about ten minutes ago I was found. I love the world and everyone in it. God told me to write his words and I am so full I can't stand it. How long can people live in darkness? God says no one ever lives in darkness. We live in love at all times. He says we don't know what living in darkness is. We live with him right now. Not later. We live in light at all times. We do have minds and thoughts because of mistakes we've made in the past. So we tend to make things up that lie to us. Because the devil does want us to live in darkness. But God is here to tell us it's a lie. We never live in darkness.

Darkness is Hell and we aren't there yet. But the devil will always try to make us listen to our minds and not our spirit. God loves us. He loves our choices no matter what they are because we are His kids. God said once, "Bless those who have faith and have not seen." We need to love, honor, trust, respect and have faith in Him. We reap what we sow. And if we love, honor, trust, respect and have faith we will get that back. What do you think people thought when God was here? He was just a child. and here's this child claiming he was God. What do you think would happen if that were to happen now? Exactly!! Everyone would laugh or act like they believed Him and then go use what He said in their church. And claim it as their own words. God has to be heard. And He will be. God doesn't sit up there not doing anything. What about that guy you never give your change to for a phone call? Then the next week you have a flat and you're late for work. And there that guy is helping you change it. Or when your loved ones get hurt and make it through their life? And what about all of us surviving in this human world? How do you explain those things? How can we sit around saying we live in darkness when we don't even know what that is? God is here NOW. Every day. He is that friend that is there for you when you need them. He is that friend that you are there for. I know God better than I know my own father. That's the way I love God. And the truth is...we anymore don't know what that is. Love is past anything we have ever felt.

People we have to wake up!! People tonight I work up!! WOW!! I'm so happy I can cry. From now on I'm going to listen and do what God tells me. I'm Free. My spirit is free. And all I had to do was ask God to free it. I love Him so much and He has so much to teach me. How can I be one of God's speakers?? I'm just a kid. But God loves me and He told me to write what He says. Here I am. God just needs us to come back to Him. He will always be there. God is in every day. God is in every one. And He looks down on no one. He loves all of us equal, from the pastor of the church to a murderer. Some people aren't ready. God says, "Some people are still blind." God owns everything we live on and have. We own nothing, nothing. People are blinded by what they "think". People, God is so awesome and He deserves our love. God has been in my life since I was born. All my life people have tried to tell me how to believe in Him. And what to believe about Him. But God is not like that. He is not just one person or personality. Everyone believe in God differently because God doesn't want us to believe in Him the same way. He also doesn't want us to argue and hate one another because we believe in Him differently. He wants us to listen to each other and learn the different things about Him through each other. Listening is one of the most powerful things anyone can do. God says, "People who listen are the ones who have wisdom and wise people make it very far in God and in the world". And when I say "God says" it is what He is telling me right now so there is no misunderstanding about me misquoting the Bible. Because I'm not. I'm writing what God has to says to me right now.
